Action Computer Systems Wins 2009 Reseller of the Year Award from ASI/Restaurant Manager™ for Third Consecutive Year

Award presented at the 2010 ASI Reseller Conference in New Orleans, LA

SILVER SPRING, MD – Action Systems Inc. (ASI), makers of the Restaurant Manager POS System and Write-On Handheld tableside ordering solution for use in the foodservice industry is pleased to announce that for the third consecutive year Action Computer Systems of Larchmont, NY was named Reseller of the Year. The award for their 2009 performance was presented to Action Computer Systems at ASI's 10th annual Reseller Conference recently held in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The Reseller of the Year Award is given to the ASI reseller partner who had the best Restaurant Manager sales performance during the most recent financial year. "Throughout our partnership with Restaurant Manager, we have focused on providing customers with industry leading POS solutions and service," said Michael Tanney, President and CEO at Action Computer Systems. "ASI provides us with POS capabilities such as mobile management via iPhones or Blackberries, real-time alerts and fully-integrated Online Ordering. Action Computer Systems couples those capabilities with our industry expertise, complimentary solutions and commitment to customer service – as well as partnerships with value added vendors like Mercury Payment Systems and Posiflex – to help our customers boost their bottom line and cut costs."

An ASI reseller for nearly 10 years, Action Computer Systems has won the Reseller of the Year Award for three consecutive years. With additional services such as integrated credit card processing, custom menu programming, staff training, comprehensive support and restaurant business consulting Action Computer Systems provides customers with the advantage of a reliable point of sale solution tailored to their unique needs.

"We're proud to be represented by Action Computer Systems in the New York City, Westchester and Connecticut areas," says Craig Bednarovsky, ASI's Director of Sales and Marketing. "Mike Tanney and his team clearly understand the value of going beyond technology to provide their customers with the tools, expertise and support needed to thrive and survive in today's tough economy."
